Thank You

I cannot imagine how anyone could live without God and without a church family. Mama loved her church family and had worshiped here at Water Street for 74 years.

She lived her life with her Savior and God beside her all the way.

You all are our family. You loved our mama and encouraged us and kept us going while mama struggled and fought this terrible disease. Thank you for that love.

Thank you for the phone calls, the cards, the visits at home and the visits at the nursing home, the gifts, the prayers and the many, many times you told us you were thinking of us. Thank you for the text messages that came just when we needed them. Thank you for lifting us up again and again. Encouragement came through Gods timing and He used chosen ones at just the right time.

I thank you all for the prayers, cards, and calls during the times I spent im the hospital. Thanks for the beautiful fruit basket I received.

I thank God for letting me be here today.

Love you all, Wilma Heath
